

English Language International B2 Certificate

All applicants for studies conducted in English are required to submit a document confirming English Language Proficiency at least B2 level.

If previous education was conducted in English we require:

- high school diploma – a document which allows you to enter higher education institutions in your country – for BA studies
- BA diploma (a document which allows you to continue studying at MA degree) – for MA studies
- MA diploma – for doctoral studies

We will not require any specific B2 English certificate, but we will require a confirmation from your school/university that medium of instruction of all classes and exams was English.

If previous education was NOT conducted in English we require a document confirming English proficiency.
