8. Candidates applying in the field of Canon Law are required to hold a master's degree in Canon Law and a licentiate in Canon Law (JCL).

1. The qualification procedure to the doctoral school is carried out in two modes:
 - (a) regular qualification procedure concerns seats financed within the limit of the state subsidy, and takes place in accord with the time schedule set out in the Annex no. 1;
 - (b) special qualification procedure concerns externally funded seats, and takes place within a period laid down by the Rector, adapted to the decision about the granting fund.
2. The number of seats (seat limit) available through ordinary qualification for the first year of doctoral school shall be determined by the Rector.
3. The number of seats (seat limit) available through special qualification to the doctoral school shall be determined by the Rector, irrespective of the limit set out in point 2 above.

4. Qualification to the doctoral school is subject to seat limits.
5. The number of seats available through ordinary qualification shall be divided into two sets:
 - (a) 1/3 of the seat limit is filled with candidates from the ranking list, irrespective of research discipline;
 - (b) 2/3 of the seat limit is filled with the parity of disciplines, while maintaining the competitive procedure within each research discipline.
6. If the number of candidates from a given discipline fails to use up the seat limit in accordance with the parity of disciplines, the seat remaining in the limit shall be granted respectively to the candidates on the ranking list.

1. The qualification procedure for the doctoral school shall be conducted by a Qualification Committee, appointed by the Doctoral School Board. The Qualification Committee may appoint subcommittees.
2. Members of the Qualification Committee shall be appointed from among the academic teachers of KUL who at the minimum hold a PhD degree, with at least three representatives of each research discipline in which the doctoral school provides education.
3. Head of the Doctoral School shall be a Chairperson of the Qualification Committee.
4. The Chairperson shall appoint a Qualification Committee Secretary, who may be appointed from among the Committee members, or from the outside of the Committee. The Committee Secretary who has been appointed from the outside the Committee does not hold the right to vote.
5. Resolutions of the Qualification Committee shall be adopted by the ordinary majority of votes with at least half of the Committee members present. In the case when there is an equal number of votes, the Chairperson's vote is decisive.
6. Protocols of the Qualification Committee's meetings are signed by the Chairperson.
7. The Committee's documentation and administration is provided by the Doctoral School Office.

1. The Qualification Committee shall appoint subcommittees for the evaluation of the quality (subject-matter) of the submitted research proposals in a given discipline, for the evaluation of the publication output, the participation in research grants and for an interview with doctoral candidates.
2. The Qualification Subcommittee may not have less than five members, academic teachers with a PhD degree at the minimum. Each Subcommittee shall also include a representative of research disciplines other than the one in which the qualification procedure is carried out.
3. The Subcommittee may appoint reviewers: specialists, who are not members of the Qualification Committee for the quality evaluation of research proposals, the evaluation of publication output and participation in research grants.
4. Each application is reviewed by at least two independent committee members or reviewers.

5. On the basis of the evaluation of the research proposal, the publication output and participation in research grants, the Subcommittee decides on admitting the candidate to an interview.
6. Resolutions of the Qualification Subcommittee shall be adopted by the ordinary majority of votes, with at least half of its members present. In the case when there is an equal number of votes, the Chairperson's vote is decisive.
7. The Qualification Subcommittee conducts an interview with candidates for the doctoral school. The interview may be arranged with the use of electronic means of communication in the videoconference mode.
8. The Chairperson of a Subcommittee shall be elected by the members of the Subcommittee by the ordinary majority of votes.
9. The Chairperson of a Subcommittee may appoint a secretary, from among the Subcommittee members or from the outside the Subcommittee. The secretary appointed from the outside of the Subcommittee does not hold the right to vote.
10. The Subcommittee shall recommend to the Qualification Committee the final assessment of the candidate's research proposal, publication output, participation in research grants and of the interview. The final assessment of the above mentioned elements in the qualification procedure shall be approved by the Qualification Committee.

1. A member of the Qualification Committee is obliged to maintain impartiality and objectivity in the evaluation of candidates for the doctoral school.
2. A member of the Qualification Committee has to be excluded from the Committee's work for the evaluation of a given candidate if he/she:
 - (a) was the supervisor of the candidate's master thesis or bachelor thesis;
 - (b) agreed to assume the role of the doctoral supervisor of the candidate after admission to the doctoral school.
 - c) is the candidate's superior;
 - d) is the candidate's spouse or a relative by affinity up to the second degree;
 - e) may be related to a candidate for any and all other reasons, in a way that might raise concerns of the impartiality of the assessment of the candidate.
3. In the cases enumerated in point 2 above, the Committee decides to exclude a member from the evaluation procedure for a given candidate.
4. A member of the Committee is required to inform the Committee about any circumstances that may affect his/her impartiality in the qualification procedure.
5. Regulations in points 1-4 above shall also be applied to members of the Subcommittee.

1. A candidate may apply for admission to the doctoral school in one research discipline available at the doctoral school.

- d) has paid the qualification fee.

§ 10

1. The qualification procedure for the doctoral school is a competition.
2. The qualification procedure consists of the following components:
 - a) Evaluation of the research proposal submitted by the candidate - constitutes 50% of the final result.

The description of the research proposal contains the initial concept of the PhD dissertation, with the definition of the research interests and the sub-discipline. In particular: the purpose of the designed research, research method, knowledge of the state of research and the literature, the originality of the project, the possibility of project implementation.

- b) Evaluation of the publication output - constitutes 20% of the final result.

The publication output which is evaluated includes research papers, research monographs, chapters in multi-author monographs.

- c) Participation in research grants - constitutes 10% of the final result.

Participation in research grants is understood as obtaining a research grant in competitions organised by a domestic or a foreign grant institutions, obtaining an internal research grant at a university or participation in a team research programme;

- d) The interview - constitutes 20% of the final result.

The interview includes a presentation of the research project and a discussion about it, research interests, predispositions to conduct academic work.

3. The interview, depending on the chosen language track, as specified in § 6.2, is conducted in:

- a) in English - when a candidate has chosen the English language track of the doctoral programme;

b) in Polish - when a candidate has chosen the Polish language track of the doctoral programme.

4. The interview is conducted in accordance with the schedule set out in the Annex no. 3. The Qualification Committee informs a candidate of the time and place or mode of conduct of the interview at least 3 days before the scheduled date of the interview.

§ 11

1. The individual components of the qualification procedure are scored.

2. The final result comprises the assessment (score) from all the components of the qualification procedure, taking into account the weight of individual elements, as specified in § 10.2.

3. All score calculations are made up to two decimal points (.00). This is the accuracy level adopted for the entire qualification procedure and its components.

4. The maximum number of points which can be obtained in the qualification procedure is 100.

5. The Doctoral School Board determines and publishes detailed rules of score allocation for the individual components of the qualification procedure, as specified in § 10.2 above.

6. A candidate who fails to complete the qualification procedure receives 0 points for the whole qualification procedure.

7. A candidate who receives 0 points in the qualification procedure may not be admitted to the doctoral school.

§ 12

1. The Qualification Committee draws up a ranking list of candidates for the doctoral school, ordered by their final qualification scores, from the highest to the lowest. One ranking list is created, covering all the disciplines of the doctoral school.

2. The ranking list consists of:

(a) ordinal number

(b) candidate's name;

(c) research discipline;

(d) scores for each component of the qualification procedure;

(e) final score for the qualification procedure;

(f) confirmation of a candidate's admission or non-admission to the doctoral school.

3. The Qualification Committee determines the minimum point threshold required for acceptance to the qualification procedure for each science discipline separately.

4. On the basis of the ranking list, the Qualification Committee establishes a list of candidates admitted to the doctoral school (final list), in accordance with the seat limits, as specified in § 2(5) above.

- a) 2/3 of the seat limit is filled with the parity of disciplines, while maintaining the competitive procedure within each research discipline based on the final scores obtained by candidates;
- b) 1/3 of the seat limit is filled with candidates from the ranking list, irrespective of research discipline in compliance with average grade for the Subcommittee.

5. In the case of an equal final scores for the qualification procedure, the order of candidates on the ranking list shall be decided by means of the following parameters:

- (a) a higher number of points for the evaluation of the research proposal;
- (b) a higher number of points for the evaluation of the publication output;
- (c) a higher number of points for the interview.

6. The ranking list, signed by the Chairperson of the Qualification Committee, shall be annexed to the protocol of the committee's meeting.

7. The Chairperson of the Qualification Committee forwards a copy of the protocol with the ranking list to the Rector.

8. A candidate receives information about the results of the qualification procedure on his/her online admissions account.

9. The score obtained by a candidate for individual components of the qualification procedure, the final score and the minimum point threshold established for each discipline are public. All partial assessments issued by the members of the Qualification Subcommittee and reviewers are confidential.

1. A candidate admitted to enrolment to the doctoral school is placed on the doctoral students' list on condition of his/her delivery of the following portfolio of documents no later than by the date specified in the schedule (Term of Enrolment, the Annex no. 1):

- (a) all original documents submitted electronically beforehand via the online admissions account;
- (b) declaration of undertaking education at KUL's Doctoral School, which is a fill-in form to be printed out from his/her online admissions account;
- (c) statement confirming his/her being a doctoral student exclusively at the John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin.

2. Foreign candidates may request for an extension of the deadline for submitting the original documents to the Director of the Doctoral School referred to in point 1(a) above.

3. A failure to fulfil any or all the obligations set in point 1 above shall result in the removal from the list of admitted candidates.

4. The Qualification Committee, after verifying the completeness of the submitted documentation which referred to in point 1, writes a candidate in the list of doctoral students.

5. In the case of candidates who do not hold Polish citizenship, enrolment on a doctoral students' list is based on an administrative decision on enrolment into the doctoral school, issued by the Rector at the request of the admissions committee, after a candidate submits the documents listed in point 1 above.

6. The Qualification Committee draws up a list of people admitted to the doctoral school and provides candidates with information on whether or not they have been admitted by no later than 30 September 2020. The list is signed by the Chairperson of the Qualification Committee.

7. The seat which has become vacant due to the resignation of a candidate is taken by a person that follows on the ranking list, with respect to the seat limits specified in § 2.5 above.

8. The regulations in point 1 above apply to the candidate who fills in after a resignation specified in point 6, on condition this candidate submits the required documents within 5 days of the date when the information about this requirement is provided to him/her.

§ 14

1. In the case of a refusal to admit to the doctoral school, an administrative decision is issued and signed by the Chairperson of the Qualification Committee.

2. A candidate may submit a request for review of the admission decision within 14 days of the receipt of the decision.

3. The request for review is proceeded by the Qualification Committee. A draft review decision must be approved by the Rector. The review decision of the Qualification Committee is final.

§ 15

1. The special qualification procedure is carried out on the Rector's approval. It starts not later than November of a given academic year.
2. The special qualification procedure is a competition. The competition is conducted separately for each application.
3. The terms and conditions of the special qualification procedure and the competition requirements, the deadline and procedure for the applications' submission is determined by the Doctoral School Board, on the basis of the applications from research project managers and/or the requirements of institutions financing education at the doctoral school.
4. A candidate for the doctoral school admitted under the special qualification procedure shall meet the conditions laid down in § 1 above. The conditions of the competition held for the purposes of the special qualification procedure may specify additional requirements for candidates.
5. The Qualification Committee for the special qualification procedure is appointed by the Doctoral School Board.

1. All members of the Qualification Committee and the Subcommittees are entitled to remuneration on the terms established by the Rector.
2. In situations not provided for in these regulations, the decision is made by the Director of the Doctoral School.
